

ORR PARK SCAVENGER HUNT

Fill in the blanks, describe or draw the carving that you found that goes with the clue, and if a clue tells you to do something, do it.

Name: _____

- My snacking preference is quite different than yours. Who am I and what am I eating?
- Too many things for a boat to float 'em, it doesn't make sense – this pole must be a _____.
- Birds land on my head, and they won't stop chirping. But I make them leave, with my very loud _____.
- Name three things that a mother might carry on her back. Then pat that mother on the back and tell her "Good job." _____
- Have you come to the kingdom to dance or to sing? Or to be the court jester for our land's tiny _____?
- I can't call the dentist – there's no phone, there's no booth. Maybe you can help me. Have you seen my _____?
- Heavy are the eyelids that wear the crown. Hum me a bedtime song.
- I'm very friendly, I hope you can see me. After you leave, I'll go back to my _____.
- You won't get my sword unless you come higher. But don't get too close, because I breathe _____.
- I belong on holiday with my friends. Who am I? _____
- You can use your hand, or perhaps a stick, but could you look down my throat and see if I'm _____?
- Hi ho, good night. Have you seen Snow _____?
- Some trees are treasure, some trees are trash. Do you like my thick eyebrows, or my full _____?
- If you're stuck in a tree, it would be tragic, but you might could get out, if you knew some _____.
- As your journey ends, we might be friends, we might be brothers, but we aren't _____.
- Draw your favorite carving on the back of this sheet.